

We view unwanted phone calls as a direct form of harrassment and so does everyone we know. The Wisconsin No Call List should be left alone and more legislation is needed to end this endless harrassment of the American people in their homes